Dear Carlo,

I am writing to invite you to join the Editorial Board of The Journal of Energy Markets, an international refereed journal focusing on the evolution and behaviour of electricity, gas, oil, carbon and other energy markets, both wholesale and retail. The journal is led by Derek W. Bunn from the London Business School, as Editor-in-Chief and published by Risk Journals at Incisive Media in London.

Over the past 18 years, Risk Journals has benefited from the support of multiple eminent editorial Advisory Boards and this journal is no exception. As the financial industry enters a new era, and confronts a changing set of challenges, the management of Risk Journals remain eager to maintain the standard of our publications.

As a Board member, you would be expected to review papers from time to time, as well as help promote the Journal to your colleagues. We are also always grateful for ideas and contributions from members and we appreciate the opportunity to ask their advice on editorial matters occasionally.

We would be delighted to have you on board the journal, and feel that your expertise in this area will greatly benefit both the prestige and quality of the publication.

If you would like any more information about The Journal of Energy Markets, or any of the other journals we publish, please visit www.risk.net/journal. Alternatively, if you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

I hope that you will consider my request I look forward to hearing from you,

Yours sincerely,
